

Take Care

Of your skin. A beautiful complexion and a velvet skin can only be obtained by taking great care and using

STOKE'S TOILET CREAM

These winter winds play havoc with one's complexion and the result is that inevitable burning and chapping and reddening of the skin—Stoke's Toilet Cream will give you the needed protection. Use it. It's a duty you owe yourself.

Stoke & Feicht Drug Company

A Little of Everything.

Tuesday of next week is groundhog day.

Mrs. Robert Z. Parrish is critically ill with pneumonia.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Woodring January 21, 1909.

Walter J. Lucas, the new drayman, began work Monday with a new red wagon.

Dr. A. J. Meek will preach in the Presbyterian church at Rathmel at 3.30 p. m. next Sunday.

There was a good rafting flood in the Sandy Lick creek the first of this week, but no timber to run.

Miss Nell Stephenson entertained a few friends at her home in West Reynoldsville Monday evening.

At the monthly meeting of the Reynolds Building and Loan Association last week $14,600.00 was sold.

Regular services in the First Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening. Rev. J. H. Higby will preach.

Rev. S. Wallace Mitchell, who was at New Haven, Conn., a month holding evangelistic meetings, returned home the past week.

The next number of the public school lecture course will be a lecture by Spillman Riggs, one of America's most noted humorists.

In this issue will be found four large advertisements—Gonder, Hannau, Millrens, Gillespies. Read their ads and see the bargains they are offering.

The postoffice at Rockdale Mills has been discontinued and mail will go to residents of that place by usual free delivery from the Falls Creek post-office.

The Reynoldsville and Punxsutawney high school basketball teams will play a game at the Evan's skating rink in Reynoldsville on Friday evening of this week.

"The Power that Worketh in Us," will be Rev. John F. Black's theme in the M. E. church next Sunday morning, and his evening theme will be, "Son, Remember."

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Arnold, of 947 West Seventh street, Erie, Pa., January 17, 1909. The proud and happy father is a son of Mrs. David Sowers, of this place.

Rev. J. C. McEntire preached in the M. E. churches at Sandy Valley and Wislaw Sunday in place of the regular pastor, Rev. Redinger, who is conducting a successful revival at Falls Creek.

The Presbyterian Penny Club will have charge of the Bijou nickelodeon on Tuesday evening of next week, Feb. 2nd. Proceeds for benefit of the Club. You are especially invited to see the pictures that evening.

George O. Lutz, who was assistant superintendent of the silk mill when it was in operation, and has since looked after the silk mill company's property here, will leave town Saturday for York, Pa., where he moved his family some months ago.

See Koopers' convention will be held in New Bethlehem the 25th of February. Five of the speakers booked for the convention are citizens of this town: Dr. A. J. Meek, Isaac F. Miller, George H. Res, J. E. McPherson and E. A. Hail.

TELEPHONE CO. IMPROVEMENTS.

$12,000 to be Spent by the Summerville Co. to Better System—Access to 100,000 Miles of Line.

The Summerville Telephone Company, one of the best institutions of the kind, a rock-ribbed, independent and thoroughly up-to-date in all matters pertaining to equipment, has just concluded arrangements to spend about $12,000 on extensions and repairs on its lines connecting Punxsutawney, Reynoldsville, DuBois, Brookville and Summerville, and intermediate towns, while negotiations are now culminating that will give their patrons access to Pittsburgh, Butler, Kittanning, New Castle and all towns in Western Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio.

Last fall, at an opportune moment, when the material could be purchased most advantageously, Dr. J. A. Haven, of Brookville, general manager of the company, bought a carload of copper, 34,000 pounds, all told. The material was to have been used next spring, but owing to the mildness of the winter, work has already been begun on the repairs and extensions.

Outside superintendent William Wingert and a crew of ten men are now repairing poles and stringing the wire between Reynoldsville and Panic to connect the Summerville main line. When that part of the work is completed, Punxsutawney and Reynoldsville will be connected up with a five-line system. Similar additions will be made between Punxsutawney and DuBois, Punxsutawney and Brookville, Brookville and Reynoldsville, Brookville and Summerville, and Punxsutawney and Summerville, the home office of the company.

Has Been An Active Life.

Three weeks ago mention was made in THE STAR that Mrs. Ellen Huntington, relict of Simon Huntington, now in her 90th year, had frequently taken a gun and gone out and shot a deer to get meat for the family in the pioneer days. During her long life Mrs. Huntington has been healthy and active. Until within the past few weeks she was never ill only for a few days when a new son or daughter came to their home. Mrs. Huntington and son, Andrew, have been living on a small farm in Winslow township and up until within the past two months the old lady did all the housework, milked a cow, fed the chickens, &c. Last Friday Mrs. Huntington was brought to home of her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Hoffman, in this place, to remain until she regains her health and she expects to return to keep house for Andrew. She is worrying a little about how Andrew will get along without her while she is at home of her daughter.

Died in Columbus, Ohio.

W. F. Schultze and wife were called to Columbus, Ohio, the first of last week to attend the funeral of the latter's brother, Noah Dickey, who died Jan. 18th, 1909, and was buried in the Green Lawn Cemetery at Columbus Friday afternoon. Noah Dickey was born in McAlmont township, Jefferson County, Pa., October 23rd, 1865, and was 43 years old last October. Noah was the son of Alexander and Mary J. Dickey, both deceased. He had resided in Columbus twenty years. Is survived by three sisters and two half brothers, Mrs. W. F. Schultze, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. Ella Hellbig, of Panic, Mrs. Kate McGee, of Eleanor, William Dickey, of Wislaw, and Samuel Dickey, of Panic.

George Rhoads, of Manorville, Pa., was called here this week on account of the death of his mother, Mrs. S. M. Rhoads.

Members of the Ingelow Club will go to Punxsutawney Friday evening to see "When Knighthood Was in Flower" at the Jefferson Theatre.

Judge Willis Brown, Juvenile Court Judge of Salt Lake City, Utah, who gave a very interesting lecture in Assembly hall last year, lectured in Punxsutawney Monday evening of this week.

The Pittsburgh Gazette-Times contained a number of pictures Monday of candidates who are "reasonably sure of being elected to common council" in Pittsburgh at the February election, and among them was William J. Burko, some years ago a citizen of Reynoldsville.

Effie Viola Calhoun, aged ten months and twenty-six days, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Calhoun, of Washington township, died at 1.30 p. m. Sunday, January 24th, 1909. Pneumonia was cause of death. Funeral service was held at home of parents at 10.00 a. m. yesterday, conducted by Rev. Geo. H. Hill. Interment in the Beechwoods cemetery.

Saturday afternoon a youthful basketball team of this place hid themselves away up to Falls Creek and played a game with a team at that place and were defeated. The score was only 57 to 10. On the last half of the game the Falls Creek boys put in a man who plays with the best team at that place. The Reynoldsville players were: Walter Murray, Francis Phillips, Guy Postelthwait, William Pierce, Harold Cochran, Howard Higgins, Paul Shutt and Kenneth Alexander were along as substitutes.

MRS. S. M. RHOADS DEAD.

Had Resided Here Thirty-Six Years—Had Been Helpless Several Years.

Mrs. S. M. Rhoads, relict of George Rhoads, died at her home at 10.00 p. m. Saturday, January 23, 1909. She had been practically helpless for several years on account of blindness and infirmities of the body. She was ready and willing to depart this life. Funeral service was held at the old Rhoads homestead on Main street at 2.30 p. m. Monday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek. Interment was made in Beulah cemetery.

Sarah Martha Brotherline was maiden name of deceased. She was born at Hollidaysburg, Pa., September 30, 1833, and was 74 years, 4 months and 24 days old. She was twice married. December 7, 1850, she was married to Miles J. Clark, who died in the Civil War. Unto them two sons and one daughter were born, and one son survives. December 21, 1873, she was married to George Rhoads at Reynoldsville, who died July 15, 1891. One son, George Rhoads, Jr., was born to second husband. This son also survives the deceased.

Mrs. Rhoads had resided in Reynoldsville about thirty-six years. She was the stepmother of Mrs. George Sharp, Mrs. John Howlett, of Reynoldsville, William Rhoads, of Penfield, and Henry Rhoads.

Scottish Celebration.

The Scottish clans of Big Soldier celebrated the 150th birthday of Bobbie Burns, the poet, at Big Soldier last night with a concert, supper and dance. A good old Scotch time was enjoyed by all present.

Special Meetings in Baptist Church.

The evangelistic meetings will be continued in the Baptist church every evening this week, except Saturday, and if the interest demands it the meetings will be continued all of next week. Eight persons have professed conversion. Rev. J. H. Higby, who is assisting Dr. Meek, is preaching very interesting sermons.

First Flood for Six Months.

The rain and melting snow raised the water in the Sandy Lick Creek Sunday to four feet above normal and according to records kept by A. B. Weed, train dispatcher in P. R. R. office, who keeps a daily record of the weather, this is the first time the creek has risen above normal since July 21-22, 1908, at which time it raised to three feet above normal.

Hankerchief Shower.

Tuesday evening of last week Miss Ella E. Seeley, the artist, entertained the Ingelow Club at her home on Seelye Terrace. It was a handkerchief shower for Miss Elvie Coleman, a member of the Club, who will soon join the matrimonial ranks. Progressive Japino was played. The prize was a hand painted plate. Miss Christine Brown won prize. The place cards were hand painted calendars and the score cards were also hand painted. The refreshments were fine.

In Pythian Circles.

Thirty-five members of Valiant Lodge No. 461, Knights of Pythias, including the degree team, were at Rathmel Monday evening initiating two candidates into Confidence Lodge, K. of P., in that village. The degrees were exemplified by the local team. After the lodge session lunch was served and the event was pleasant to all concerned. The recent awakening of interest in Pythianism in this section is resulting in many accessions to their ranks and the Reynoldsville degree team, which has been initiating the candidates, is said to be developing into one of the finest teams in the state.

Barclay-Clawson Nuptials.

At 9.30 Wednesday evening, January 20, 1909, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Clawson, on Main street, their daughter, Miss Alice Clawson, and Arthur Barclay, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Barclay, of Jackson street, were united in marriage. Rev. John F. Black, pastor of the First M. E. church in this place, officiated. Only immediate relatives of the young couple were present. A wedding supper was served. Mr. Barclay and bride are both well known and have a host of friends in town who extend congratulations and good wishes for a successful and pleasant journey down life's pathway together.

Tortured On a Horse.

"For ten years I couldn't ride a horse without being in torture from piles," writes L. S. Napier, of Rogers, Ky., "when all doctors and other remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me." Infallible for piles, burns, scalds, cuts, boils, fever sores, eczema, salt rheum, corns, 25c. Guaranteed by Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.

Valentines.

Come and see us in room next door to postoffice. Finest assortment of valentines in Reynoldsville.

Rubbers.

Do you know we are selling a heavy rolled edge 12 inch leather top rubber shoe $3.25 value for $2.69.

GILLESPIES.

Rubbers (to $) any shape of shoe pointed, medium or broad toe. Adams' Elastic-berg's.

DEATH FROM HEART TROUBLE.

Foster Whitmore Died Suddenly at Home of His Parents—Funeral This Afternoon.

Foster C. Whitmore, of East Pittsburgh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Whitmore, died at home of his parents on Mabel street, Reynoldsville, at 12.25 a. m. Sunday, January 24th, 1909, from heart trouble. Eight months ago Foster had a tussle with typhoid fever, from which he never fully recovered. He spent a couple of months here last summer recuperating and in August returned to East Pittsburgh to resume work in the Westinghouse Electric Works, where he had been employed since 1905, but he was only able to work a day or two and had to quit. Six weeks ago Foster, wife and son came to home of the former's parents and it was thought that Foster was gaining strength. Saturday evening he ate supper with the family and he was feeling comparatively well. At 8.00 p. m. he had a fainting spell and a doctor was called. Doctor remained an hour and gave Foster some heart stimulant. About midnight he had another sinking or fainting spell and the doctor was called the second time, but when he arrived at 12.20 Foster was beyond medical aid.

Foster C. Whitmore was born in Reynoldsville January 17, 1882, and was 27 years old the 17th of this month. February 14, 1906, he was married to Miss Mary McCarthy, of Punxsutawney. He had a host of friends in town who were sorry to hear of his death. Foster is survived by his parents, wife, one son, Walter, two brothers, Charles P., of Pittsburgh, Samuel D., a twin brother, of Reynoldsville, and one sister, Mrs. Jacob Huffman, of Pittsburgh.

Funeral service will be held in the First Baptist church at 2.30 p. m. today, Wednesday, conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, and interment will be made in the Reynoldsville cemetery.

TROUBLE FOR SOMEBODY.

We Sound a Warning Note to Persons Who Furnish Liquor to Men of Intemperate Habits.

It has been an open secret in Reynoldsville for sometime that somebody in town buys and furnishes liquor to men who cannot get drinks in the bar-rooms at this place. The law is very strict, but no one seems to have taken the trouble to enforce the law, and, consequently, men of intemperate habits continue to get drunk so long as they have the price to buy the liquor. Some of these days the law will be enforced and somebody will get into trouble, as we know of one case, at least, where a little detective work is being done. A fellow who is mean enough to buy liquor for another who cannot buy it himself, deserves to be punished to the full extent of the law. Most of the chaps who buy liquor do so to get a drink out of the bottle themselves. It would be much better to think now of the disgrace that relatives would suffer if you are arrested and sent to jail for furnishing liquor to men of intemperate habits, therefore stop right now. The next bottle may be the one that will cause your arrest.

On Good Committees.

In the committee appointments made by the Speaker of the House and the President of the Senate, following the organization of both branches of the State Legislature at Harrisburg late Wednesday afternoon the members from Jefferson county were given due recognition by the appointing officers. Senator T. M. Kurtz is given assignment on seven important committees, and Representatives Mitchell and Longwell five each. Longwell was the only one of the Jefferson county representatives to receive a chairmanship, the Brockwayville member being placed at the head of the committee on counties and townships.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Common School Diplomas.

Common school diploma examinations this year will be held Saturday, April 3, at Brookville, Sigel, Summerville, Punxsutawney, Big Run, Reynoldsville, Falls Creek, Beechwoods, Florence school house, Sykesville and Worthville. The principal of the schools at the place where the examination is to be held will be in charge, and will select from the other teachers as many helpers as are needed. Uniform examination questions will be mailed to the various principals.

Meetings in M. E. Church.

The special meetings in the Methodist Episcopal church will continue each evening this week except Saturday evening. Rev. John F. Black is preaching good sermons and there is good interest being manifested. Several conversions this week.

Blankets.

Do you know we are selling a 5 pound all wool 12-4 blanket in white, brown and white, pink and white, and black and black and white for $3.98.

GILLESPIES.

Every cloudy Thursday free baby pictures will be taken at the Columbus Studio.

Leave your coal orders at W. U. Elshberger's.

THE PEOPLE WHO ARE PASSING TO AND FRO.

Miss Caroline Robinson is visiting in DuBois.

Mrs. O. A. Baldwin was in Warren this week.

Mrs. Thomas Jewell visited a sister in DuBois Saturday.

Thomas D. Hoon and wife spent Sunday in Johnsonburg.

D. H. Breakey spent several days of last week at Stanton.

William Dougherty, of Falls Creek, was in town Saturday.

Lawyer Clement W. Flynn was in Harrisburg this week.

Mrs. John S. Smith was a visitor in Punxsutawney Monday.

Misses Phyllis Hays and Alma Learn visited in Brookville last week.

Miss Laura Elder was the guest of Miss Nell Stephenson over Sunday.

Mrs. Dr. A. H. Bower visited her parents in Curwensville last week.

Frank Wiley, of Force, spent Sunday at home of his parents in this place.

George Simmons and wife visited at Derry Station, Pa., the past week.

Miss Lucile Mitchell visited in Punxsutawney several days this week.

Miss Maggie Ross, of Beaver Falls, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. A. P. Utter.

Misses Rosie Hughes and Florence Green visited in DuBois Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Alma Learn, of Lovejoy, Pa., was the guest of Miss Phyllis Hays last week.

Miss Ira Weaver, of New Bethlehem, was the guest of her cousin, Cella Yost, last week.

Walter Lucas was in Brookville Friday attending the funeral of Joseph P. Lucas.

Harry B. Moore, of Philadelphia, came here to attend the funeral of Mrs. S. M. Rhoads.

Mrs. James Armagost and her mother spent several days in DuBois last week visiting relatives.

Mrs. J. W. Campbell and two children are visiting the former's parents at Lawsonham.

Mrs. Edward Bird, of Clearfield, visited her father, L. W. Scott, in this place this week.

Mrs. Benjamin Taylor, of Turtle Point, Pa., is visiting her son, George Rupert, in this place.

Raphael Dougherty, of Oil City, visited his sister, Mrs. Thomas Black, in this place last week.

Mrs. L. E. Carl was called to Tyler last week on account of the serious illness of a sister-in-law.

George Martin and wife, of Kittanning, visited the former's mother in this place the past week.

Mrs. W. B. Yearicks, of Grafton, W. Va., is visiting her mother, Mrs. F. W. Groves, in this place.

James N. Bigelman, wife and son, Nester, of DuBois, were guests at home of Teofeel DeMay last week.

Mrs. John Houck and Mrs. Fin Barr, of Indiana, Pa., are visiting Mrs. Amelia Murray in this place.

Mrs. J. A. Martin, of Vandergrift, is visiting her mother, Mrs. S. M. Siple, in West Reynoldsville.

Misses Florence and Gene Siple, who have been in New Bethlehem for some time, returned home yesterday.

John Tyson, of Olean, N. Y., is spending a couple of weeks at home of his parents on Jackson street.

Mrs. H. Earl Swift, of Brookville, was here last week to attend the wedding of her brother, Arthur Barclay.

Mrs. W. O. Smith, of Punxsutawney, visited at home of her father-in-law, John S. Smith, in this place Thursday.

J. J. Sutter and wife returned last week from a trip to Lovington, Ill., where they visited the former's brother.

Earl Dempsey and wife, of Dent's Run, spent Sunday at home of the former's father in West Reynoldsville.

Miss Hanna McGrath, of Falls Creek, was a guest at home of Mrs. M. Brennan in West Reynoldsville over Sunday.

H. Bruce Kline, wife and two children, of New Kensington, Pa., visited the former's mother near this place last week.

Mrs. Laura McCarthy and Ruby Gresh, of Weedville, Pa., visited Mrs. Harry Corbett in West Reynoldsville last week.

Miss Margaret C. Stoke visited a sister at Climax, Pa., and friends all around that section, several days last week.

Mrs. John Peters and Mrs. A. F. King, of DuBois, were in town Friday to see their mother, Mrs. Lattimer, who is very ill.

Prof. J. H. Alleman, superintendent of the DuBois public schools, spent Tuesday evening in Reynoldsville, the guest of Prof. W. M. Rife.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mellinger left last Wednesday to spend the winter in Florida. They will not return home until about the first of May.

Miss Edna Myers, of Buffalo, N. Y., and Master Noyes Ellis, of Kenosha, Wis., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Myers on Hill street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Kessler, of DuBois, spent Sunday at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Stiles, in West Reynoldsville.

Mrs. G. C. Rhoads and Mrs. John Cavender were in Kittanning last Wednesday attending the funeral of an uncle, Joseph Frantz, brother of Daniel Frantz, of Reynoldsville.

Mrs. H. F. George and son, who had been visiting the former's parents for several weeks, went to Port Allegany, Pa., yesterday to visit relatives.

Mrs. I. F. Dempsey, and children, of Oak Ridge, visited at home of the former's father-in-law, J. W. Dempsey, in West Reynoldsville the past week.

Mrs. Mary Ringler, of Sistersville, W. V., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. P. King, five or six weeks, will start for her home today.

Mrs. Lydia Brekhill, of Mt. Pleasant, Pa., is visiting her granddaughter, Mrs. Ira Smith. Mrs. Brekhill is ninety-three years old. She has been a widow sixty-two years.

J. J. Long and daughters, Misses Lavira, Mabel and Elizabeth, left here yesterday for their new home at Jacksonville, Florida. Mrs. Long has been there over a year for benefit of her health.

L. J. McEntire and wife and H. L. McEntire and wife went to Williamsport yesterday to attend the sixth anniversary of the Williamsport Consistory Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry. Three day celebration.

L. M. Weltzel and son, Karl, of Iselin, S. B. Stephenson and wife and Harvey Stephenson, of Pittsburgh, Chas. Stephenson and wife, of East Brady, John R. Elder and wife, E. S. Vosburg and wife, Mrs. S. M. Barclay, Miss Nello Elder, Edward Elder and Edward Vosburg, of DuBois, were visitors in town several hours last Wednesday.

JACOB YOHE DEAD.

Respected Citizen of Shinbone Died of Consumption on Tuesday.

Jacob Yohé, a highly respected citizen of Shinbone, near Rathmel, died at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning, January 19th, 1909. The cause of his death was consumption, of which he had been suffering for about a year, having been bed-fast for the past six months.

The deceased was in his 55th year and was born in Henderson township, where he resided until about four years ago, when he moved to his farm in Shinbone.

The funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. J. C. McEntire, of Reynoldsville, Thursday afternoon at one o'clock and interment was made in the Yohé cemetery in Paradise.

The deceased is survived by wife, ten children and one step-daughter, the latter being Mrs. Myrtle Yates, of Ramseystown. The names of the children are as follows: Mrs. Etta King, of Desire, Mrs. Elizabeth Adamson and Estella Stott, of Soldier, Mrs. Ella Patterson, of Ernest, Clyde, Laura, Bessie, Hazel, John and Lester, at home.—Sykesville Post-Dispatch.

Special Return Car to Reynoldsville.

Grace Merritt in "When Knighthood Was in Flower," the play constructed from Charles Major's book is one of the coming events of the local theatrical season. The time of the play dates back to the romantic days of King Henry the Eighth, and the action of the play takes place in and about Windsor Castle the famed home of English sovereigns for many centuries.

The dramatization of Major's story is the work of Paul Kester, Jefferson Theatre, Punxsutawney, Friday, January 29th. Seat sale at McEntire's drug store.

Good Entertainment.

The concert given in Assembly hall last night by the Commonwealth Ladies' Orchestra was a good musical entertainment and was very much enjoyed by the large audience present. This was the third number on the High School course.

Carnation Day.

Friday of this week is "Carnation Day"—President McKinley's birthday. Instead of making it a legal holiday every person who can do so will wear a carnation that day in memory of a great man.

Fresh caught fish for sale today at Frank's Restaurant.

Little Columbus pictures 10 for 25c; larger ones at low prices. Columbus Studio.

Dr. L. M. Emerick, of Georgetown, Pa., specialist in chronic diseases, will be at Frank's Tavern, Reynoldsville, February 19. All persons suffering from organic trouble should visit him for an examination.